THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1909.

Entered at the Post Office, Bloomsburg, Pa.,
as second class matter, March 1, 1888.

ALUMNI DINNER.

At two o'clock yesterday afternoon the alumni sat down to the annual dinner prepared by Steward Frisbie in the school dining room. The blessing was asked by Rev. Dr. Hemingway, formerly of Bloomsburg. John M. Garman, Esq., '71, of Wilkes-Barre, in his position as toastmaster, with his bright humor and his effervescent Normal spirit, made things interesting from the beginning. His introductory remarks addressed to the alumni, and particularly to the youngest, the class of 1909, were of an alternate witty and serious nature. He called for responses to the following toasts: "The Old Town Pump and Normal Ideals," Professor Geo. E. Wilbur; "The Class of '84," Mr. MacAniff, of Wilkes-Barre; "The Class of '99," Mr. E. P. Gager, of Scranton; "The Normal Girl," Miss Port; "Our Wives and Our Sweethearts," Professor J. C. Foote; "Naughty Nine," Mr. Barrow, of the graduating class.

With a few farewell remarks Mr. Garman then brought to an end the final feature of the commencement week of 1909.

CLASS REUNIONS.

Class day was marked by four reunions. The class of 1884 celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary of graduation, ten of the members being present. Classroom A was used as its headquarters, trimmed prettily in green and white.

'94 was represented by a dozen members who, in celebration of their fifteenth year away from Normal, met around the festive board set up in Professor Dennis' classroom.

The Decennial of the class of 1899 was observed by about fifteen members, who had Room B tastefully trimmed in purple and gold as their headquarters. Steward Frisbie served them a dinner in Room L.

Nineteen members of the class of 1904 were present at the celebration of their fifth anniversary. By far the largest reunion was that of the class of 1907. Over sixty members sat down to a dinner in the gymnasium, which was made gay by blue and white trimming. Music throughout the dinner added to the enjoyment.

AT DANVILLE HOSPITAL.

The seventeenth annual commencement of the training school for attendants at the State hospital for the insane at Danville was held Thursday evening, twenty-three graduating in the class of 1909. The graduates are: Ada M. Ande, Clara Bacon, Mary D. Beyer, Ursula Elizabeth Bitler, Edith J. Howell, Harry Lewis Cutbert, Russell W. Deibert, William Harry Dildine, Josephine H. Else, Martha Evans, Henry W. Fawver, Hannah Flora, Mayme Elizabeth Foster, John Claude Hoover, L. Ray Johnson, Bess M. Kapp, John Joseph Lavery, Charles N. Mortimer, Francis S. Mitchell, Verna Morrison, Annie E. Query, Charles Elmer Runkle, Alice Trainor.

The three prizes offered to those making the highest general averages in all subjects of the entire two years course were awarded to Charles Mortimer, of Danville; Ada M. Ande, of Maudsley; and Clara Bacon. The prize winners ranked in the order given.

The Rev. Charles Morrison, rector emeritus of St. Mathew's Protestant Episcopal church of Sunbury died in Philadelphia on Monday night. Mr. Morrison had many friends in Bloomsburg who will regret the news of his death. He has officiated at St. Paul's church upon several occasions.

JONESTOWN CENTENNIAL.

Monday July 5, the Hundredth Birthday of That Quaint Fishing Creek Village Will be Observed.

From Benton Argus.

Reaching the age of one hundred years, Jonestown that beautiful little Fishingcreek village, decided to properly celebrate the event, so on Monday, July 5th, it will be done, and from the program arranged, it will be a gala day.

There will be an all day celebration, consisting of speaking, band music, sports, fire works, etc.

The committee in charge of arrangements are sparing neither time nor money to make the centennial a great success.

The speakers will be Prof. A. U. Leshor of Berwick, Rev. W. I. Burrell of Benton, Clinton Herring Esq. of Orangeville, Rev. Andreas of Jonestown and Master Fred Hosler of Benton. The Orangeville Band will be in attendance, and live the occasion with excellent music.

The pond two miles long will afford good boating and fishing, and no doubt will attract many people to the spot on the 5th. There will be refreshments and meals served on the ground, with its beautiful grove and excellent water, will make an ideal spot for picnic parties. In the evening there will be an excellent display of fire works.

A good big crowd from this town have signified their intentions of spending the day at Jonestown on the 5th, practically the only place in this county where a celebration will be held, particularly a centennial.

MENZBACH-LEMONS.

A wedding which proved a surprise to even the closest friends of the bridal couple was that solemnized Thursday morning by Rev. Father Murphy, of St. Columba's Roman Catholic church, when Miss Ella Lemons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lemons, of Leonard Street, became the bride of Anthony Menzbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Menzbach of Williamsport. The bride was attended by Miss Adda DeWitt as maid of honor, and the groom by Mr. Joseph Flaherty as groomsmen. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Menzbach left for a wedding tour to Niagara Falls and other New York points. On their return they will make their home in Bloomsburg, where Mr. Menzbach has been employed for several years.

W. H. Moore Retires from Business.

Today Mr. W. H. Moore retires from business after a long and honorable career. He was engaged in mercantile trade at Fairmount Springs from 1872 to 1892, coming to Bloomsburg the latter year. Soon after he erected the handsome building on the corner of Main and Iron streets, and opened a general store. About twelve years ago he changed his line of goods to shoes exclusively, and has kept a large and choice stock, and enjoyed a fine trade.

Mr. Moore is a liberal and progressive citizen, and has won the esteem and respect of the community. He proposes to take it easy the balance of his days.

MARTIN-FISTER.

At 9 o'clock Thursday morning, at the home of the bride in Orangeville, Miss Elizabeth C. Fister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ranslow Fister, was married to Mr. Frederick A. Martin, of Atlantic City, N. J. The ring ceremony was used, Rev. Alexander Scott, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Orangeville, officiating. After a brief wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Martin will go to Atlantic City, where they will make their future home. Mr. Martin ranking as one of the leading druggists in that popular seaside resort.

Mistaking a bottle of strychnine pills for candy, Alonzo, the two-and-a-half years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Phillips, last week ate part of the bottle's contents, and only the prompt and efficient work of Drs. Shuman and Miller saved the little fellow's life.

The value of the coal lands in Northumberland county has been raised by the coal commission from $11,130,557 to $12,539,863. This increased valuation justifies the contention of the Northumberland county commissioners that the values of coal lands have been entirely too low in the past.

Wednesday Club the Guests of Miss Stewart.

The members of the Wednesday Club were the guests of Miss Ella Stewart at Williams' Lodge on Tuesday. The trip to the lodge was made by train and the members returned home in automobiles. Progressive Five Hundred was played and a most excellent dinner was served. The guests of Miss Stewart were: Mrs. Paul E. Wirt, Mrs. A. Z. Schoch, Mrs. Samuel Wigfall, Mrs. C. W. McKelvy, Mrs. G. E. Elwell, Mrs. H. H. Grotz, Miss McHenry, Mrs. Frank Ikeler, Mrs. S. B. Arment, Mrs. F. P. Pursel, Mrs. C. W. Funston and Mrs. R. E. Miller.

If the English Suffragettes persist in their stormy campaigns, the government buildings will have to be fortified against the attacks of these female idiots. Last Tuesday a deputation attempted to obtain an audience with Premier Asquith, and being refused it, slapped policemen in the face and threw stones through the windows of the Houses of Parliament until over one hundred were arrested. There have been minor Suffragette disturbances in this country, it is true, but thank heaven, we have not quite so many women who have gone to the uttermost bounds of foolishness as have these English fanatics. If the movement were universal what would become of womanhood?

Prof. William Noetling of Selinsgrove, was in town a few hours on Tuesday, having come up as the guest of several of the former classes of the Normal School at their reunions. He has many friends here who are always glad to welcome him back.

There was a fine market this morning. Strawberries are still coming, though they are nearing the end. Cherries are plentiful, ranging from 8 to 10 cents a basket. Currants are now ripe, vegetables of all kinds are in abundance.

The work on the Farmers National Bank is progressing. The lower store room has been torn out, and that side will be completed before the present bank room will be disturbed. It will take about three months to complete the changes.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., postoffice: Asa T. Boykin, Mrs. Margrete Hartman, Mr. Masos Jacox, Mr. A. Kline, (2); Mr. E. W. Shank, Miss Ruth Summers, Mr. Geo. R. Wheeler.

Cards. Mrs. Robert Benson, P. P. Griffin, Miss Susie Gross, Miss Lucy Kleckner, Miss Clair Moser.

MAN-A-LIN

MAN-A-LIN is An Excellent Remedy for Constipation.

There are many ailments directly dependent upon constipation, such as biliousness, discolored and pimpled skin, inactive liver, dyspepsia, overworked kidneys and headache.

MAN-A-LIN can be relied upon to produce a gentle action of the bowels, making pills and drastic cathartics entirely unnecessary.

A dose or two of Man-a-lin is advisable in slight febrile attacks, la grippe, colds and influenza.

Those who prefer can obtain Man-a-lin in tablet form.
